- » Instant tracking of your payment history
- » Options to view and print six months of detailed statements, up to 24 months of historic billing
- » E-mail reminders of upcoming payments and due dates

DID YOU KNOW?

If everyone viewed and paid their bills online we would collectively save 16.5 million trees in just one year.

- Javelin Research, 2007

On time, every time

Spend less time processing paperwork and paying your electric bill, and more time focusing on your business and customers. With FPL Automatic Bill Pay, your authorized payment is withdrawn automatically from your bank account every month. And, we work with your schedule, so tell us what time frame* works best for your company.

- » Avoid late or missed payments
- » Schedule when your payment will be made
- » Receive monthly statements to review and keep for your records
- » Save time and money

*You set up the payment withdrawal date for anytime between 11 and 20 days after your electric bill is issued.

With FPL Automatic Bill Pay, we do the work while you take care of your business. Plus, when combined with FPL E-Mail Bill, your accounts payable process is further simplified. Think about it – your company's electric bill gets paid automatically every month and you can view and manage your bill online, anytime!

A great solution for managing cash flow

Mild weather, extreme temperatures, new technology, old equipment, seasonal peaks and valleys – there are many reasons why your electric bill fluctuates. If a more predictable bill fits your business plan, sign up for FPL Budget Billing. This program evens out your annual energy costs during the year so you pay approximately the same amount each month.

Simply put, Budget Billing stabilizes cash flow by helping to keep monthly expenses predictable with little fluctuation. There will be months when your budget bill is higher or lower than your actual energy costs, but it all evens out in the end. Of course, you will still need to keep an eye on energy use and continue to conserve.

Graph demonstrates how Budget Billing looks over time compared to an actual bill.

After enrolling in FPL Budget Billing, your company's monthly statement outlines:

- » Actual Bill amount – what you would pay on FPL's regular billing plan
- » Budget Billing amount – what you owe, calculated by averaging your energy costs for the most current 12 months and adding one-twelfth of your deferred balance
- » Deferred Balance amount – the difference between your actual bill and your budget bill. Because FPL adjusts this balance each month, the payment due never gets too large and is more predictable. This balance also reflects what will be added to or subtracted from your final bill, should you decide to stop using the program.

Customers with an overdue, unpaid balance are ineligible for FPL Budget Billing.
